The convention decided to hold all India General Strike on 2nd September, 2015 on its 12 points Charter of Demand.

Further, Seven trade unions of employees and officers in the Banking Sector namely AIBEA, AIBOA, BEFI, INBOC, INBEF, NOBW and NOBO have given a call for a one-day All India Strike in all Banks (both in Private and Public Sector) on Wednesday, 2nd September, 2015 protesting against (1) the anti-worker, anti people and pro-corporate policies of the Central Govt., (2) the proposed adverse amendments to the Labour Laws, (3) retrograde Banking Reforms, attacks on trade union rights and demands of bank employees and bank officers and (4) supporting the charter of demands declared by the National Trade Union Convention.
