To,
Shri.V.G.Kannan,
Chief Executive Officer,
Indian Banks' Association,
MUMBAI.

Dear Sir,

Please accept our hearty congratulations on your appointment as the CEO of the Indian Banks' Association, a premier institution representing the managements of the entire banking industry in our country. You had the privilege of heading the Associate and Subsidiaries of State Bank of India as its Managing Director and Group Executive till 31st July, 2016. Your contribution to the growth of the State Bank of India has been substantial. We are happy that you are heading the Indian Banks' Association which has a high reputation as a professional body of the Bankers. We look forward for your valuable guidance and support in our endeavor as partners in the progress of the banking industry and in consolidation and further growth of banking in our country.

2. We take this opportunity to convey our good wishes, and support and co-operation while dealing with all issues concerning the welfare of the employees and officers working in the industry.

3. Wishing you all success in your new assignment.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Y.SUDARSHAN)
