Dear Sir,

CERTAIN OPERATIONAL AND INCESSANT IR ISSUES AT YOUR BANK

Festive greetings from the West Bengal State Unit of All India Bank Officers' Confederation(AIBOC), the largest apolitical trade union, representing more than 3.00 lakh officers working in the banking industry.

02. We have been given to understand that The Bangiya Gramin Bank Officers' Association (BGBOA), our affiliate in your esteemed institution along with three officers' associations have been compelled to carry on agitation demanding seamless customer service with necessary upgradation in the system. They are soliciting a holistic approach from your side to address the IR issues which have been worsened during the couple of months. Despite taking any positive initiative to address their demands, your few actions are deteriorating the yearlong healthy relations prevailed in the Bank.

03. You are aware that AIBOC and its affiliates have been actively involved in fostering the growth and around development of the Indian banking system as a major trade union in supervisory cadre. Our affiliates, All India Regional Rural Bank Officers' Federation (AIRRBOF) and Bangiya Gramin Bank Officers' Association are committed to be guided in the same philosophy. But with deep consternation, it has been observed that your good office has no intention to recognise the effort and dedication of the officers' fraternity of the bank, who are the main driving force of your esteemed institution.

04. We do expect that good sense of harmony and peace will prevail by your personal intervention and your management team will be suitably counselled from initiating any punitive and egregious actions in future to quell the brewing unrest and discontent amongst the officers' fraternity. Otherwise AIBOC, being a responsible trade union in the industry and its affiliates will have no other option than to chalk out next course of action to instill confidence among our members as well as to save the bank.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sd/-
