02. We, on behalf of entire banking fraternity, place on record our sincere gratitude for your positive attitude responding to our Letter No. AIBOC/WBSU/30 dated 13th November, 2023. It has given an immense pleasure to the bankers who are committed to render their best possible services to all the stakeholders including the Government. In fact, this has become a history that your prudent decision has given an opportunity to the bankers to celebrate the auspicious days with their families in true sense like other sections of the society.
