Top management is also made aware of the impractical targets and extreme work pressure that are being imposed upon the officers working at the frontline in branches and CPCs. Rampant calling of officers on Sundays and holidays is affecting their morale and work-life balance. Hence, proper mechanism should be put in place by the Top Management to address the issue. In accordance with agenda item number 1, the Comrade President invited the undersigned to present the Annual Report for the year 2023 before the house.

After receiving the President's invitation, the undersigned warmly greeted the assembled members and narrated the significance of the gathering. Acknowledging the record-breaking attendance as a source of inspiration, he expressed that it would fortify the leadership in navigating forthcoming challenges.

Prior to delving into the salient features of the report, the house observed a minute of silence to pay homage to those colleagues and personalities who passed away during the period under report. Apologies were tendered for the omission of recently departed personalities, as the report had already been sent to press for printing. Subsequently, he also welcomed all the new entrants to Bengal Circle and this mighty organization as a whole. He also showed his respect to many leaders of AIBOC and AISBOF who demitted office, and several senior office bearers and members of SBIOA joined the ranks of SBIOA Seniors, an integral wing of the Circle Association.

He elaborated in detail the critical aspects covered in the report, including the international and national scenarios with economic conditions, the performance and necessity of public sector banks in India, and the latest developments in pending issues within the banking industry, with a particular focus on SBI in the post-pandemic era. Expressing deep concern, he highlighted issues such as unemployment, inflation, strained cross-border relationships between nations, and the management's directives to quantify work done on Sundays/Holidays when releasing pending bills for compensation. Furthermore, he delved into the activities and achievements of AIBOC (WBSU), highlighting a significant public meeting organized by the State Unit on February 11, 2023, which drew over 10,000 citizens from diverse backgrounds. Addressing the activities of AISBOF briefly, he emphasized the Federation's continuous efforts in resolving members' problems through extensive communication with the Corporate Center. Pertinent issues, including non-payment of bills, the need for adequate compensation for working on Sundays/Holidays, improper manpower planning, and filing of FIRs against officers were raised at the Circle Management as well as Federation level. Recognizing the crucial role played by the Federation representatives in connecting with employees, a synergy meet called "LEAP" took place at the State Bank Institute of Leadership (SBIL) in Kolkata on December 1, 2023, involving top executives, Officers' Federation, and Award Staff Federation representatives. AISBOF leadership raised significant issues during the synergy meet and is still actively pursuing them with the management. He also highlighted the activities of SBIOA Multi-State Co-operative Credit Society Ltd, SBIOA Academy, Circle Association, and its sub-committees. Stressing the importance of involving more young activists in the Association, he shared achievements such as the fulfillment of a long-standing demand for a guest house at Digha and considerations for setting up of new guest houses at Tarapith and Kalyani. The Circle Association conducted various beneficial programs for its members, including Byatikramee Pathakram, Fitment Correction Camp, Photography Competition-cum-Exhibition, publication of the Empowerment Series, and Face-to-Face programs. The timely distribution of the diary, wall calendar, and table calendar for 2024 showcased organizational efficiency. Highlighting milestones such as the policy for movement of MMGS-III, SMGS-IV, and V officials, repatriation exercises for Scale III officers, and the formation of the new Central Committee for the term 2024–26, he extended gratitude to the members for their unwavering support and camaraderie in presenting a unified image of the Association. Acknowledging the contributions from apex leadership to grassroots level and SBIOA Seniors, he invited members for an open discussion, concluding with an appeal to reach out to the citizenry with the tagline "Together We Can."

When invited by the President of the Circle Association, Comrade Dilip Kumar Sasmal, AGS (Finance), presented the Audited Statement of Accounts to the house for discussion and adoption.

The following members volunteered to discuss on the Secretary's Report and Statement of Accounts. All of them supporting the report and the Statement of Accounts, expressed their views and concerns as follows:

- i) Comrade Vishwajeet Kumar Sinha, from RBO-2, Siliguri expressed gratitude to AIBOC (West Bengal State Unit) for maintaining proper liaison with the State Government of West Bengal. This led to the notification of three additional holidays in 2024 under the N.I. Act, 1881, on New Year's Day (January 1st), Janmashtami (August 26th), and Chhat Puja (November 7th). He extended thanks to the Circle Association for unwavering support during challenging times and appealed all members to actively support and participate in every call given by the leadership.
- ii) Comrade Bikash Ranjan Ghosh of RASMECCC Burdwan conveyed that the Bank's established SOP was not adhered to during the processing of loan proposals. He suggested establishing a quality control cell to monitor deviations approved by higher authorities. Additionally, he raised concerns about officers who were compelled to work on Sundays/holidays without compensation. He emphasized the due role of the Bank to provide adequate training to assist in the completion of any external certification program such as CRISIL or MOODY'S.

- iii) Comrade K Mohammed Vasheer from RBO-1, Port Blair expressed gratitude to the leadership for supplying diaries and calendars for the current year to the furthest branch in the Bay Islands by December 31, 2023. As the dispensary in Andaman is now operational, he thanked the leadership for their persistent efforts. Certain branches, like Nancowrie, were suggested to be added to the list of the most difficult center branches. For manpower planning, he proposed allocating 2-3 additional officers for deputation purpose in A&N Islands, considering the location of the remote and challenging branches with limited communication facilities.
- iv) Comrade Debarpita Chakraborty, representing SME Salt Lake, highlighted that officers were compelled to attend the office even during mandatory vacations. She demanded an urgent resolution for the severe shortage of officers, addressing the issues of pay disparity and sabbatical leave with full pay. The excessive workload was deterring potential candidates from joining the bank and contributing to a high attrition rate.
- v) Comrade Prasanta Roy of CCPC, Kolkata, mentioned that the Cell was handling daily cheque processing of around Rs. 250 crores, despite a gradual decline in manpower. Officials currently could avail only four days off due to Grid Holidays, and he requested to include Durga Puja in CCPC's list of holidays. He also proposed increasing monetary compensation for working on Sundays/Holidays and pointed out the pay disparity between officers and award staff.
- vi) Comrade Pradipta Saha, from Gourhati Branch, highlighted that officers were compelled to attend the office during mandatory vacations. He proposed introducing a special leave quota for implementing vacation policy, in place of debiting earned leave of individual officers. Additionally, the introduction of NBC (New Bank Channel) as a pilot project in two branches in the Circle was causing significant challenges, as it was poised to replace CBS, leading to many issues for the affected branches.
- vii) Comrade Debjani Chakraborty from CCGRO (East) demanded implementation of child care leave with full pay, in line with the policies of the Central Government. She proposed for adopting a running pay scale structure similar to that of the Central Government, eliminating stagnation. She urged the discontinuation of NPS and advocated for the creation of a distinct leave pool especially for mandatory vacations.
- viii) Comrade Prajwal Tamang from RBO-IV, Gangtok thanked the leadership for extending support to the flood- affected people of Sikkim and for the special attention given to the officers posted in Sikkim all the times.
- ix) Comrade Bivas Kumar Ghosh from Kandi Branch emphasized the necessity of imparting sufficient training to officers posted at Currency Chests. He stated that, as per the circular, outsourced personnel were prohibited from entering the Currency Chest and suggested providing suitable sub-staff for this purpose. Unlike other banks, where dedicated officers manage Currency Chests, in our institution, Currency Chest officers are compelled to perform additional tasks, diverting their attention from Currency Chest-related responsibilities. He proposed the implementation of the Currency Efficiency Project in all Currency Chests, regardless of the quantum of notes received by them.
- x) Comrade Biswajit Pal from Shibpur Branch highlighted the contribution of all members to the Bank's historic profits in each quarter. He also hailed the Chairman's recognition as the 'Indian of the Year' in the business category by CNN News 18. Appreciating the speedy settlement of the wage revision, he requested the leadership to address the issue of excessive workload on officers. He expressed concerns about the Bank's analysis for manpower requirements, emphasizing the need to include other parameters in addition to financial transactions for assessing branch footfall. Stressing the importance of work-life balance and family time, he demanded to remove the complexity of Holiday/Sunday claims and advocated for the straight forward process like award staff.
- xi) Comrade L N Phinjo from SME, Ballygunge Branch emphasized that the migration from CBS to NBC posed a substantial risk of errors due to technical glitches in the system. He advocated for solidarity and commitment to stand beside every call of the Association all the times.
- xii) Comrade Subhajit Mukherjee from SAMB-II expressed gratitude to the Circle Association for implementing an online booking system for bank-maintained holiday homes in the Circle. He proposed waiving the requirement for prior approval for dental treatment and considering reimbursement for treating special diseases with a higher ceiling. Questioning the rationale, he pointed out that both CDS and 5in1 reimbursements are linked to RBC, leading to a perceived double punishment for the same issue.

xiii) Comrade Tulika Chandra from Pottery Road Branch expressed gratitude to the leadership for the outstanding 24x7 medical support provided by the Circle Medical Team. She requested suitable training for new JMGS-I officers for a minimum period of 15 days before posting. Highlighting that the first year of posting for JMGS-I officers is not officially recognized as an assignment, despite bearing full responsibility. She suggested that this period be formally considered as an assignment.

xiv) Comrade Shuvayan Bhattacharjee from Nadanghat Agri Commercial Branch emphasized the significance of preserving the respect and financial stability bestowed upon us by the institution, urging everyone to abstain from engaging in any unethical practices. Additionally, he expressed gratitude to the medical team for their unwavering support to the membership all the times.

In response to the issues raised by the members, the undersigned assured the membership that any new issue raised during the meeting would be addressed and escalated to the appropriate forum. He categorically mentioned that:

- Vacation Policy is currently sub judice.
- The Circle Association would persistently advocate for the transition from NPS to OPS.

The undersigned concluded the speech by emphasizing the openness of the Circle Association to all, dedicated to the cause of its members. Once again, heartfelt thanks and gratitude were extended to everyone, acknowledging their collective efforts in making the annual festival a truly historic occasion.
